

Date of occurrence: May 2015

Employee Name: Daniel Sanchez

Classification: Community Service Aide

Unit/Division: Support Services

Award/Commendation type and recommendations: Letter of Commendation

Daniel Sanchez began working with the Police Department in September 2014 as a Community Service Aide after transferring from Parks and Recreation and has continued to excel each month in his new position. Danny is proactive and a constant presence in the business district and residential neighborhood. He is professional, courteous, eager to learn, optimistic and an excellent representative of the Town of Surfside.

Danny consistently takes on additional responsibilities and recently took on a new role as Quartermaster in addition to his regular duties as a Community Service Aide. He attends daily roll calls to keep informed of what is occurring in the department and the community. Danny also oversees the Police Explorers Program and is always willing to lend a hand with community events such as the Citizens Police Academy, Dog Safety Expo, Bring Your Child to Work Day and the Women's Self-Defense classes. Danny participated in the Bike Safety Rodeo in Bay Harbor Islands and has received praise from neighboring Police Chiefs and police officers for his assistance on traffic problems, crashes, and for his overwhelming positive attitude. In addition, he assisted Surfside Police Officers on two separate arrest situations in May.

Community Service Aide Daniel Sanchez is recognized and thanked for his outstanding effort and recommended for the Civilian of the Month for May because of his positive outlook, professionalism and integrity.
