Article VII. – CODE OF ETHICS

Sec. 2-226. - Code of ethics adopted.

- (a) Our government is a representative democracy. Those who are elected, appointed, hired, volunteer or campaign to serve the public as representatives accept a public trust. The public entrusts its powers and resources to its servants to use only in the public interest. Public trust requires public servants to fulfill their public duties faithfully and honestly, and to subordinate any personal interest, which conflicts with the public interest. The town adopts the following ordinance to provide for specific guidelines for minimum ethical standards for public servants, officials and employees.
- (b) It is the policy of the town that no officer or employee of the town shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect; engage in any business transaction or professional activity; or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest. To implement this policy and strengthen the faith and confidence of the town's residents in their government, the town will enact a code of ethics setting forth standards of conduct required of the town's public officers and employees, in the performance of their official duties. It is the intent of the town that this Code shall serve as a guide for the official conduct of the public officers and employees of the town. For the purposes of this article the term "officer" and "public officer" shall include the town commission and all appointed town board and committee members.

Sec. 2-227. - Code of ethics generally.

The conduct of the officers and employees of the town shall be governed by the code of ethics of the town, which shall include:

- (1) The state "code of ethics for public officers and employees", codified in F.S. ch. 112, as may be amended from time to time; and
- (2) The "Miami-Dade County Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance," codified at section 2-11.1 et seq., Miami-Dade County Code, as may be amended from time to time; and
- (3) Any provisions that the town commission may adopt from time to time in addition to those set forth in subsections (1) and (2) above.

Sec. 2-227.1 - Honor code for elected and appointed town officials and town employees.

- (a) It shall be the policy of the town that all elected and appointed town officials and town employees shall adhere to the public service honor code ("honor code"). The honor code consists of the following minimum standards regarding the responsibilities of all public servants in the town.
- (b) Each elected and appointed public official and employee of the town shall, when acting in his or her official capacity, comply with the following standards:

- (1) Serve and protect the public interest above any personal or institutional interest or loyalty; and
 - (2) Act as the public's surrogate by protecting it against waste or fraud; and
 - (3) Respect and uphold laws, ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations that protect the public against abuses in town government by assisting law enforcement and other federal, state, county and local authorities charged with protecting the public trust; and
 - (4) Report any information concerning activity which may constitute a crime, of which he or she has personal knowledge, immediately and personally to the state attorney and/or the Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust; and
 - (5) Cooperate fully with law enforcement agencies or other official investigative authorities in providing truthful testimony and other relevant information pertaining to any alleged violation of the public trust.
- (c) Town supervisors shall counsel and encourage employees in their respective departments to report violations of town code, including waste, fraud or other abuse of public resources, to the appropriate agency.
- (d) The honor code shall be enforced as follows:
- (1) The town manager or the town manager's designee may use the administrative process of the town for violations of the honor code committed by all officials or employees subject to the authority of the town manager.
 - (2) The Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust shall have jurisdiction over violations of the honor code committed by elected town officials and by all other town officials and employees not subject to the administrative authority of the town manager. The Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust shall follow the procedures outlined in section 2-1074 of the Miami-Dade County Code in conducting such investigations or hearings. The Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust may impose a letter of reprimand or letter of instruction following a determination that a violation of the honor code has occurred. Such action by the Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust shall not prevent the town or any department head or supervisor from taking any additional action or imposing any penalty that they are authorized to take or impose.
 - (3) Whenever any elected or appointed town official or employee is in doubt as to the proper interpretation or application of the honor code as to himself or herself, he or she may request a binding opinion from the Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust.
 - (4) Adherence to the honor code by town employees shall be included, wherever appropriate and to the extent legally permissible, in the criteria for evaluations for merit increases, promotions, and professional recognition.

If the town takes any of the adverse actions stated in the preceding sentences as a result of an employee's compliance with the honor code, the employee shall be entitled to apply to the town manager and to the Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics and Public Trust for redress, each of which shall take appropriate steps within their authority and discretion to ensure that no employee is penalized for compliance with the honor code.
